The Security Council resumed its consideration of the item at its 5658th (private) and 5661st meetings, held on 10 and 13 April 2007, respectively, in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, having before it the report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Abkhazia, Georgia (S/2007/182).

At the close of the 5658th meeting, in accordance with rule 55 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, the following communiqué was issued through the Secretary-General in place of a verbatim record:

> At its 5658th meeting, held in private on 10 April 2007, the Security Council considered the item entitled "The situation in Georgia".
>
> The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Georgia and Germany to participate in the consideration of the item without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.
>
> In accordance with the understanding reached in the Council's prior consultations, the President, with the consent of the Council, extended an invitation under rule 39 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure to Jean Arnault, Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Georgia and Head of the United Nations Observer Mission in Georgia.
>
> The members of the Council heard a briefing by Mr. Arnault.
>
> The members of the Council heard a statement by Zurab Noghaideli, Prime Minister of Georgia.

At the 5661st meeting, the President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Georgia and Germany, at their request, to participate in the consideration of the item without the right to vote.

The President drew attention to a draft resolution (S/2007/200) submitted by France, Germany, the Russian Federation, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America.

The Security Council proceeded to vote on draft resolution S/2007/200, and adopted it unanimously as resolution 1752 (2007) (for the text, see S/RES/1752 (2007); to be issued in Official Records of the Security Council, Resolutions and Decisions of the Security Council, 1 August 2006-31 July 2007).
